

Cave Salamander

Great at hiding and likes most of all to live where it won't be disturbed.

It lives in rock outcroppings or caves in places where only a little light filters through.

Color - yellow-orange to bright reddish orange with scattered black dots

Scientific name:
Eurycea lucifuga

The Friends of Big Canoe Creek